Health Science

Pathway: Therapeutic Services

Code	Topic	Course	Knowledge and Skill	Performance Element	Measurement Criteria
HLPA01.01	Client Interaction	#5: Health Science IV: Introduction to Therapeutic Services	Therapeutic services professionals will be able to explain planned procedures to patients and health professionals including goals, side effects and coping strategies. They will use various strategies to respond to questions and concerns of patients.	Use oral communications.	Assess patients' understanding of the information provided.
					Demonstrate empathy for patients.
					Modify communication to the needs of the patients and appropriate to the situation.
				Use written communication.	Develop clear written patient information and instructions.
					Keep written records as appropriate within facility policies and protocols.
HLPA02.01	Employ Intra-Team Communication	#5: Health Science IV: Introduction to Therapeutic Services	Therapeutic services professionals will be able to communicate patient information among team members allowing for feedback as needed.	Understand team interactions.	Distinguish appropriate role and responsibilities of each team member.
					Respect and value the expertise and contributions of all team members.
					Evaluate relevancy of information to be conveyed.
					Formulate and report information in a clear and concise manner.

Copyright 2007, States' Career Clusters Initiative. All Rights Reserved

Code	Topic	Course	Knowledge and Skill	Performance Element	Measurement Criteria
HLPA03.01	Collect Information	#6: Health Science V: Therapeutic Services Preparation	Therapeutic services professionals will use facility protocol and regulatory guidelines for collecting patient information. They will participate in identifying patient heath care needs, strengths, and problems, and respond appropriately.	Collect information.	Collect and format information using facility protocols and regulatory guidelines.
					Analyze information collected to develop appropriate therapeutic response.
					Maintain confidentiality according to facility protocol.
HLPA04.01	Treatment Planning and Implementation	#6: Health Science V: Therapeutic Services Preparation	Therapeutic services professionals will understand the purposes of the treatment plan and collaborate in planning procedures that support the goals for the patient according to facility protocol, regulatory guidelines, and within their scope of practice.	Utilize planning strategies.	Create a treatment plan using a problem-solving model, incorporating patient input.
					Select appropriate resources to implement the treatment plan.
					Evaluate the plan for appropriate outcomes.
				Implement treatment plan.	Evaluate priorities in order to organize work.
					Use equipment and instruments according to the manufacturer's guidelines and accepted safety practice.
					Document actions according to facility protocol and regulatory guidelines.

Copyright 2007, States' Career Clusters Initiative. All Rights Reserved

Code	Topic	Course	Knowledge and Skill	Performance Element	Measurement Criteria
HLPA05.01	Monitor Client Status	#6: Health Science V: Therapeutic Services Preparation	Therapeutic services professionals will monitor and assess patients' health status, and develop appropriate therapeutic response based on facility protocol.	Monitor client.	Analyze and assess patient response.
					Assess need for follow up and changes to treatment plan.
					Respond to patient health changes as prescribed by facility protocol.
					Evaluate patient response to administered treatments and procedures.
HLPA06.01	Evaluate Patient Status	#6: Health Science V: Therapeutic Services Preparation	Therapeutic services professionals will evaluate patient needs, strengths and problems in order to determine if treatment goals are being reached.	Evaluation.	Choose appropriate evaluation tools to assess patient response to treatment plan.
					Analyze information gathered.
					Revise or create modifications to treatment plan based on patient response.

Copyright 2007, States' Career Clusters Initiative. All Rights Reserved